The apartment is completely independent with its own entry in Via della Scala, 117.

Important refurbishing works of this space has produced a loft full of magic and with a very special flavor. The large windows that used to bring the sun and its warmth inside the greenhouse have being maintained and today the light, filtrated by the garden tree branches, inundates all the inside of this loft.

A large fireplace makes the living room warm and informal.

Calm and peace are found in this small but perfectly furnished home with breath taking view on one of the most enchanted historical gardens of Florence.
